

RIVER LIFE™

THROUGH BURGUNDY AND PROVENCE

The University of Oregon Alumni Association presents

SEPTEMBER 25 TO OCTOBER 3, 2010

Explore the cultural treasures and marvel at the tranquil beauty of the legendary French regions of Burgundy and Provence on this delightful seven-night cruise along the Rhône River and its tributary the Saône River. Enjoy four-star accommodations aboard the M.S. REMBRANDT, an impeccably crafted vessel designed specifically to navigate the storied waterways of Europe. Pass stately Roman ruins, medieval abbeys, romantic Renaissance castles and idyllic villages nestled among rolling hills and lush family-owned vineyards. Enlightening cultural enhancements, such as the VILLAGE FORUM with a local resident, help you capture the timeless allure of provincial France and come to know its people, traditions and history.

M.S. REMBRANDT

Launched in 2003, the M.S. REMBRANDT offers the intimate, informal and graceful ambiance of a luxury yacht. The many large picture windows allow you to see into the very heart of the idyllic countryside of France. Its 39 cabins are comfortably appointed and offer the latest amenities, including individual climate control, satellite television, direct dial telephone and spacious private bathroom. Meals are served at single, open seatings in the main dining room and feature delectable cuisine made from the freshest local ingredients. Professional service is provided by highly trained crew.
